

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	page xxiii
Preface	xxv
Introduction	xxvii
ONE: The First Dolls	1
The Dolls of Egypt, Greece and Rome – Early Automata – Indian Dolls – Japanese Dolls – Chinese Dolls – Dolls of Primitive Races
TWO: Medieval and Renaissance Dolls	37
Before the Fourteenth Century – Late Medieval Dolls – The Renaissance: The Sixteenth Century – The Seventeenth Century
THREE: The Eighteenth Century	65
Plaster Dolls – Dolls of China and Earthenware – Papier Mâché Dolls – Pantins – Fashion Figures – Paper Dolls – Folk and Novelty Dolls – Wooden Dolls – Costume
FOUR: Automata and Crèche Figures	99
Automata – Walking and Talking Dolls – Collectable Automata – Crèche Figures – Dolls of Religious Significance
FIVE: The Regency Period	133
Marketing of Dolls – Wooden Dolls – Paper Dolls – Papier Mâché Dolls – Wax – Other Advances of the Period – Costume
SIX: Vendors and Ornamental Dolls	163
Pedlar Dolls – Stall-holders and Vendors – Fortune-telling Dolls – Sewing Dolls and Pincushions
SEVEN: The Victorian Era	179
EIGHT: Nineteenth-century Dolls of Wood and Papier Mâché	203
European Wooden Dolls – American Wooden Dolls: The Springfield Manufacturers – The Schoenhut Company – Papier Mâché Dolls – American Papier Mâché Dolls	